LIFESTYLES

Join renowned designers Mikel Welch and Robert Brown for an entertaining and engaging discussion about the details of design wherein both designers create monochromatic envelopes that include clean architectural lines mixed with luxurious fabrics and refined upholstery to frame their sophisticated and deliberate selections of art and objects. However, the two differ in the details. Where Welch incorporates organic, culturally-influenced objects for his roster of celebrity clients, Brown melds Neoclassical furniture with mid-century art for his cadre of international residential and hospitality clients. Join Atlanta Homes & Lifestyles Editor-in-Chief Suzanna Hamilton in a discussion with these highly cultivated and urbane designers as they discuss the details that complete each project.

THE ATLANTAN MODERN LUXURY Interiors

Caroline Perrott, Editor-in-Chief of Modern Luxury Interiors Atlanta and The Atlantan, sits down for a conversation with Modern Luxury's Creative Director, VP of Fashion, tastemaker, bon vivant and curator of all things chic, James Aguiar. Joining in on the discussion is interior designer and HGTV alum Justin Q. Williams. The pair explore how interiors borrow, share and inspire this season's fashions, and the two respective world's symbiotic relationship. Using images from past Modern Luxury photoshoots as an example, Aguiar, with William's input, will provide behind the scenes commentary on how interiors often inspire fashion direction. A special guest student from the Fashion Institute of Atlanta, will also join to create a tangible installation using Theodore Alexander fabrics to create a fall fashion look.

Trunk Show with Reprotique & Louise Gaskill Lighting Showroom Presentation

How do you create extraordinarily unique spaces and put a crisp, current twist on classic design? What is the best approach to incorporating vintage components, rooted in historically traditional style to create a fresh modern design? Visit Thibaut's showroom to uncover the artistry of reproduction from two of the industry's best, Louise Gaskill of Louise Gaskill Lighting and Susan Sprinkle, owner of Reprotique. Louise's designs begin with exquisite mid-century glass paired with hand gilded vintage components. The result is extraordinarily unique lighting and drapery hardware. Susan specializes in 17th - 18th century art reproduction and draws on time-honored production techniques and designs of antiquity to create modern pieces. Light bites and beverages will be provided.
