Like couture, interior products and spaces are unique, perfectly tailored, and one-of-a-kind. Like tailoring, good design is a custom fit with skilled artisans creating luxurious spaces perfectly suited for everyday living. From bold patterns and vibrant colors to monochromatic moments with unexpected details, design invites you to think outside the box and discover the boundless possibilities of creativity. Indulge your senses and explore tailored style at DESIGN ADAC, April 23-25, 2024, with three days of programming featuring an inviting lineup of keynote speakers, refreshing showroom presentations, remarkable collaborations, exciting celebrations, and much more.

Event seating is limited. Check-in begins 10 minutes prior to each event and seating is available on a first-come, first-served basis.

DESIGN ADAC is free to attend. Registration required.

Is Social Media Worth It?
Showroom Presentation

Join interior designer, author, and TikTok guru Annie Elliott as she shares her tips for social media success. She will discuss how to identify the right channels for you, leveraging your online presence to meet your business goals, and how social media can – and should – fit into your overall brand strategy. She will also explain why we never, ever will be able to outsmart algorithms. Can you do social media alone, or should you hire help? Is a publicist the same as a social media strategist, and do you need either or both? Annie will address these questions and more.

Following the presentation, Annie will sign copies of her book, My Neighbor Saw Me Naked, and Other Reasons You Need Drapes. The book is the reason she started her TikTok channel in the first place.
