JANUS et Cie Open House

Join JANUS et Cie to discover the latest debuts in exterior furnishings, including the Frida and Ares collections featuring stunning premium teak frames and handwoven ropes. Notice the commonalities in the use of mixed materials in both collections—the seating elements for both collections are made of beautifully handwoven polypropylene rope with an open weave, giving the pieces a light, airy feel. Plus, rope weaves are paired with frames crafted from solid premium teak in both collections. These materials allow for durable pieces that will last outdoors without sacrificing aesthetics. Both Frida and Ares are offered in neutral palettes to coordinate with any space.

Music City Muses:

The Southern Design Renaissance

Keynote Presentation Sponsored by Interiors ATLANTAN

As the influence of Southeast design continues to grow, all eyes are on Nashville. After a recent period of growth and influx, the design style that is prevalent in Music City has evolved as the designers that operate within the community have been inspired by traditional elements of Southern design while forging a creative path all their own. Join Modern Luxury Interiors Atlanta with Nashville-based designers, Brad Ramsey of Brad Ramsey Interiors, Evan Millard of Millard Interiors, and Natalie Hager of Natalie Hager Interiors, to discuss how they successfully operate within a city that is rapidly establishing itself on a national scale. Moderated by Editor-in-Chief Caroline Bentley Edwards, this talk tips a hat to the launch of Modern Luxury Nashville which debuts this September.

ADAC Presentation Room | First Floor Atrium

Following the presentation, all attendees are invited to join Brad, Evan, Natalie, and Caroline for a reception hosted by Renaissance Tile & Bath. Peruse the showroom's newest selections, meet the designers themselves, and get a preview of the first edition of Modern Luxury Nashville!
