ADAC WELCOMES 2026 WITH TWO NEW ADDITIONS TO ATLANTA CENTER

ATLANTA: Continuing its commitment to growing alongside the design community it serves, the Atlanta Decorative Arts Center (ADAC) announces two new additions to its Peachtree Hills campus, with the opening of Holland & Sherry's dedicated showroom and the arrival of Michele Gratch Interiors as part of the center's expanded Design Studios.

"These additions reflect the dynamic mix of global brands and local creative talent that makes ADAC such an important resource for the design community," said Katie Miner, General Manager of ADAC. "Holland & Sherry's decision to expand its presence at ADAC with a dedicated showroom reflects the brand's continued growth and success in the Southeast, while welcoming Michele Gratch Interiors brings a respected Atlanta design studio into our business mix. Together, they represent the depth of expertise and inspiration that is discovered at ADAC."

ADAC features over 65 unique showrooms and 40 design studios that are open to the public Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Below are details on the latest ADAC showroom and design studio news:

Holland & Sherry | Suite 238

Holland & Sherry opens a new, dedicated 5,513 square-foot showroom at ADAC this season, marking an exciting evolution of the brand's presence in Atlanta. Previously presented within the R HUGHES showroom, the move into its own space allows for a more expansive and immersive presentation of the collection. With nearly two centuries of heritage rooted in Savile Row tailoring, the legacy brand is renowned for its refined textiles, wallcoverings, leathers, embroidery, trim, rugs, and furniture. The new showroom offers designers a comprehensive view of the Holland & Sherry Interiors world, thoughtfully designed as a welcoming resource for the Southeast design community. The space reflects the brand's enduring commitment to craftsmanship, material integrity, and timeless design –while underscoring Atlanta's continued importance as a key design market. interiors.hollandandsherry.com

Michele Gratch Interiors | Suite 242P

Michele Gratch Interiors has opened a new 560-square-foot Design Studio at ADAC, marking an exciting next chapter for the firm after eight years on Miami Circle. Specializing in luxurious yet livable design, the Atlanta-based designer is known for transforming interiors into unique expressions of each client's personality and lifestyle. Offering full-service interior design – from new construction and renovation selections to consultations and virtual design services – the firm creates functional, timeless environments layered with elegant color and pattern. Each project balances aesthetics and practicality to craft spaces that are both captivating and comfortable for everyday living or entertaining. "We're excited to be moving to ADAC after eight wonderful years on Miami Circle," said founder Michele Gratch. "It's a great change for our team, and we're looking forward to having these incredible design resources right at our fingertips." The new studio opened in February. michelegratchinteriors.com

Looking ahead, ADAC brings the design community together with a series of signature spring events. From March 18–20, ADAC hosts the highly anticipated Spring Sample Sale, where the public and trade can shop for luxury furnishings, rugs, lighting and accessories at special pricing across participating showrooms. April 21-23 DESIGN ADAC, the center's annual spring market returns featuring keynote conversations, panel discussions, and immersive showroom experiences that connect and inspire.
