The Latest Additions & Renovations at ADAC

Edgar-Reeves Lighting Suite 139

Edgar-Reeves Lighting, a one-of-a-kind lampshade and lighting company, made a strategic move as a growth opportunity to ADAC, after almost twenty years in its previous location. The company continues to grow in terms of both clients and products. The company will continue to expand with an exclusive stock of high-quality lampshades and lamps, alongside brands like Fermoie and OiSoiOi, while staying true to its mission of providing inspiring lighting solutions that transform distinctive living and workspaces.

Innovations Suite 313

Innovations is proud to unveil their newly redesigned space at ADAC! The new space offers a welcoming, luxurious destination for designers and their clients, demonstrating a long-term commitment to the grand residential showroom experience. Innovations' collection of grasscloth, textile, foil, and veneer wallcoverings on display create rich, inspiring environments where luxury furniture invites designers and their clients to linger. The showroom will be used for entertaining, starting with an opening celebration during Discover ADAC. Innovations is celebrating their 50th anniversary this year, and invites everyone to join them in the new showroom for a celebratory toast!

Krog Bar - Coal Fired Pizza ADAC West, Suite D1A

Chef Kevin Rathbun brought back one of his most beloved concepts—Krog Bar—with a new twist and a new home in Peachtree Hills. Nestled inside ADAC West next to KR SteakBar, the all-new Krog Bar – Coal Fired Pizza blends the spirit of the original with a cozy, modern vibe. At just 930 square feet, it's Rathbun's smallest and most personal restaurant to date, offering seating for 28 inside and 16 more in a charming Italian-style garden.

The menu features six signature coal-fired pizzas, sandwiches, fresh salads, desserts, and a full bar. Designed by The Johnson Studio, the space nods to the original Krog Bar while adding a refined, modern warmth. Open Monday–Saturday for lunch and dinner.

McKinnon & Harris ADAC West, Suite B2

A family-owned business, McKinnon and Harris has been handcrafting bespoke aluminum furniture for estates, gardens, and yachts in Richmond, Virginia, since 1991. Now setting the standard in outdoor furnishings, the brand debuts its new Atlanta showroom in ADAC West, continuing its mission to elevate and inspire through art, design, and craftsmanship.

Phillip Jeffries Suite 319

The Phillip Jeffries Atlanta showroom has officially reopened following exciting renovations. They are thrilled to welcome you back to their beautifully updated space. Visit them to explore the latest collections, connect with the Atlanta Team, and experience the new showroom in person.
